Important note about the new Direct Membership Scheme

On the 1st September this new scheme comes into effect. Anyone who makes their application to take part in this tournament must have registered their membership of the English Chess Federation before the entry will be accepted, unless they are prepared to pay the full amount of £24.

For the Open FIDE Rated Section

The minimum class of membership required is Gold if your country of affiliation is ENG (ie England.) Players affiliated through their national Chess Federation as recognised by FIDE do not require to be members of the English Chess Federation.

For the U170, U145, and U110 sections

The minimum class of membership required is Silver which will be charged at £19 via the ECF Office, or at £18 if this is done by the player on-line. The on-line facility became available on 26th July 2012. After the 1st July 2012 the membership lasts through until 31st August 2013. For ECF members in good standing at the level of Silver or better, the entry fee (after discount) will be £18.
